

Maurice Jean-Pujol Zarza

PROFILE

I am a development professional with a strong academic background, recognized as an outstanding student at Santa Clara College in Asunción, Paraguay. I have a strong interest in the fields of mechanics and electronics, as well as in web development and programming. I am seeking an opportunity to apply the knowledge I have gained from my recent work experience and continue to grow as a web developer. I am a highly motivated and focused individual, committed to my work. In addition to possessing strong listening and critical analysis skills, I am willing to learn new work methodologies, tools, and technologies.
